

Streetwear: printing on fabric

September 29 and 30, 2018

At the foot of the Lépine stairs, 743 rue Saint-Vallier Est, Quebec City

Quebec City, September 10, 2018 – In collaboration with the Société du patrimoine urbain de Québec and Engramme, Folie/Culture invites the public to a fabric-printing event in the heart of the Saint-Roch neighbourhood on Saturday September 29 and Sunday September 30, 2018, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Come and make your own Manhole Madness print on rue Saint-Vallier Est. Artists Laurent Gagnon and Paryse Martin will also be present to discuss their experience making their own contributions to Manhole Madness.

Tenth anniversary of Manhole Madness!

During Quebec City's 400th anniversary in 2008, Folie/Culture came up with an imaginative way of appropriating public property: professional artists were selected to design 10 manhole covers for a project called Manhole Madness.

Urban imprint

Folie/Culture invites you to rediscover these 10 pieces and to create your own Manhole Madness print. Participants will be provided with all the necessary materials to make a print. During the activity, artists Laurent Gagnon and Paryse Martin will present their works and discuss their involvement in the original project during two short presentations (September 29 and 30, respectively, at 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.).
